Using the PACFA Membership Logo

The PACFA Membership Logo is a certified trademark and may only be used under the conditions set out below.

1. The PACFA Membership logo may only be used by any individual applicant or member of a PACFA Member Association who has been approved for Clinical, Provisional or Intern listing on the PACFA National Register. Once accepted onto the National Register of Psychotherapists and Counsellors, the member is entitled to use the PACFA logo and their Register Number, only for the period that their membership is current.
2. The following conditions govern the use of the PACFA logo by individuals who are Clinical or Provisional members of PACFA:
 - a. A Register Number will be issued by PACFA once membership has been accepted. This number MUST be placed immediately underneath the Membership logo in the following format:
Register No. 12345.
 - b. the membership logo must ONLY be reproduced using the artwork provided by PACFA.
 - c. if your membership lapses or is suspended for any reason, including non-payment of fees, failure to meet the renewal requirement or suspension or cancellation by PACFA due to professional misconduct, then the membership logo should not be used on any new or reprinted/repeated publications or promotional material.
 - d. The membership logo should not be used on any materials used to promote training or continuing professional development. PACFA has developed an endorsement scheme which allows members to endorse and advertise continuing professional development. A separate PACFA endorsement logo is available for trainers and advertisers see the CPD Endorsement Page for further information.
